General Information

Pursuant to Education Article §11-601, the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC) maintains a list of attorneys (also known as lawyers) willing to represent students in Title IX Campus Sexual Assault Proceedings pro bono or at reduced fees.

Regulations regarding this list are here.

Please contact us at TitleIXproceedings.mhec@maryland.gov for further assistance.

Information For Students

Here is a list of attorneys (also known as lawyers) you may contact to find representation for a Title IX proceeding you are involved in. The attorneys on this list are limited to charging $100 per hour for their services and these fees may be paid by MHEC upon application by the attorney. Every attorney on this list has attended training on representing students in Title IX proceedings. It is in an attorney's discretion as to whether they agree to represent you, subject to their availability. If they agree, you will need to sign a retainer with the attorney. If they do not agree, you can contact other attorneys on the list. You are not guaranteed an attorney from this list.

MHEC does not recommend or endorse any attorney, law firm, or legal services agency on this list.

Per COMAR 13B.09.01.06, MHEC is not liable for any acts or omissions of the attorney, the law firm, or the legal services agency. If you have a complaint about your attorney, please contact the Attorney Grievance Commission. Information on the Attorney Grievance Commission, including instructions on filing a complaint, is available here.

Students may also retain an attorney not on this list. Attorneys not on this list may also seek reimbursement not to exceed $100 per hour for their services.
