A physical examination is not required for entry to Allegany College of Maryland, but the College is interested in any health conditions which might require special services. Federal law prohibits making preadmissions inquiry about disabilities. Information regarding physical disabilities, voluntarily given or inadvertently received, will not adversely affect any admissions decision. If you require special services because of physical disabilities, you may notify us in the Admissions Office. This voluntary self-identification allows Allegany College of Maryland to prepare appropriate support services to facilitate your learning. This information will be kept in strict confidence and has no effect on your admission to the College.

In compliance with Part V, Department of Education, 34-CFR, Part 668 - Student Assistance General Provisions; Allegany College of Maryland will make available to all prospective students data regarding completion or graduation rates for the College through the College Admissions Office. Completion or graduation rates of students receiving athletically-related student aid data are available to all potential student athletes, their parents, high school coaches and guidance counselors through the Athletic Department. The Campus Security Act Information is published annually through the College newsletter and is mailed to students.

Allegany College of Maryland is in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Allegany College of Maryland accords all the rights under the law to all students in credit courses. No one outside the institution shall have access to, nor will the institution disclose, any information from students' education records without the written consent of students except to personnel within the institution, to accrediting agencies carrying out their accreditation function, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of students or other persons. All of these exceptions are permitted under the Act.

I have read the statements contained herein and accept the conditions and policies. Further, I certify that all information provided in this application is true/accurate and that any omissions or inaccuracies could result in dismissal from the College.

I understand that it is my responsibility to notify the Admissions Office of any change in the information contained on this application.
