

Community

Keeping THE DREAM Alive

A Culminating Community Event in the three month long celebration of The Life and Legacy of
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

Saturday, May 3, 2008

4:00 p.m. ~ Praise Dancers ~ from Washington D.C. area
~ Emmanuel Episcopal Church, 16 Washington Street, Cumberland

Sunday, May 4, 2008

1:00 p.m. ~ Welcome & Reading of the “Mountaintop Speech” ~ by Reverend Deas, Emmanuel Episcopal Church, 16 Washington Street, Cumberland

1:30 p.m. ~ Symbolic March ~ down Washington Street to Center Stage on Baltimore Street

1:45 p.m. ~ MAGPIE Performance ~ Downtown Mall ~ Musicians Greg Artzner and Terri Leonino, nationally recognized musicians and singers, demonstrate traditional freedom songs from the Civil Rights movement while sharing about the history, role, and meaning of the music. (Partial funding by Allegany College of Maryland Peace Studies Club)

2:30 p.m. ~ Storytelling Session for Children “Celebrating Diversity” ~ Downtown Mall
~ Conducted by Lynn Bowman

3:00 p.m. ~ African Dancers ~ Allegany College of Maryland Students ~ Downtown Mall

“We can't afford to slow up because of our love for America and our love for the democratic way of life.
We must keep moving. We must keep going.
~ Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.