Thank you for your interest in Allegany College of Maryland.

Allegany College of Maryland has an open door admissions policy; however, some programs have specific admissions requirements. Our goal is to make your admission and registration process as simple as possible.

Allegany College of Maryland does not discriminate against any individual for reasons of race, ethnicity, color, sex, religion or creed, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, genetic information, familial status, disability or veteran status in the admission and treatment of students, educational programs and activities, scholarship and loan programs, or to terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leave of absence, compensation and training. Allegany College of Maryland complies with applicable state and federal laws and regulations prohibiting discrimination and Maryland prohibits retaliation in any form against any person who reports discrimination or who participates in an investigation. Allegany College of Maryland recognizes drug and alcohol abuse/addiction as a health risk; the dangers associated with heroin and opioids are gravely concerning to this institution. The college urges everyone to be informed and offers educational resources (including treatment information) at https://allegany.edu/drug-and-alcohol-information/index.html. All new, full time students are required by Maryland law to participate in heroin/opioid training. In an overdose emergency, call 911. If you have any questions or concerns or if you need help, contact the Campus Safety/Special Police by email at rcuthbertson@allegany.edu or by phone at 301-784-5252 or the Office of Student & Legal Affairs by email at rconner@allegany.edu, or by phone at 301-784-5206. Allegany College of Maryland prohibits the possession and use of drugs and alcohol on all college property and in all college-affiliated activities without the express permission of the College President.

WILLOWBROOK WOODS HOUSING

Are you interested in on campus housing? ☐ YES ☐ NO

(If yes, you must complete a separate housing application at http://allegany.edu/student-housing/index.html.)
Anyone who experiences mobility, medical, psychological, or learning disabilities is encouraged to contact the Academic Access & Disability Resources Office (AADR) to request accommodations at 301-784-5234 or ADR@allegany.edu. This voluntary self-identification allows Allegany College of Maryland to prepare reasonable accommodations to support your learning. The information will be kept in strict confidence in the AADR Office and will have no effect on your admission to the College. For further information, go to https://www.allegany.edu/academic-access-and-disability-resources/.

In compliance with Part V, Department of Education, 34-CFR, Part 668 - Student Assistance General Provisions; Allegany College of Maryland will make available to all prospective students data regarding completion or graduation rates for the College through the College Admissions Office. Completion or graduation rates of students receiving athletically-related student aid data are available to all potential student athletes, their parents, high school coaches and guidance counselors through the Athletic Department. Allegany College of Maryland complies with the Higher Education Reauthorization Act including the Clery Act, and the Violence Against Women Act as well as other federal and state rules. Crime statistics are submitted annually to the United States Department of Education (website: https://ope.ed.gov/campussafety/#/), and the most recent annual Crime & Fire Safety Report is published on the college’s website at https://allegany.edu/documents-policies/index.html.

Allegany College of Maryland accords all the rights under the law to all students in credit courses. No one outside the institution shall have access to, nor will the institution disclose, any information from students’ education records without the written consent of students except to personnel within the institution, to accrediting agencies carrying out their accreditation function, to persons in compliance with a judicial order, and to persons in an emergency in order to protect the health or safety of students or other persons. All of these exceptions are permitted under the Act.

Allegany College of Maryland prohibits sexual misconduct and sex discrimination by or against all students, employees, and campus guests. If you have any questions or concerns or if you need to make a complaint, contact ACM’s Title IX Coordinator, Dr. Renee Conner in CC-152, by email at rconner@allegany.edu, or by phone at 301-784-5206. For detailed information about policy, procedures, and prevention education, see https://allegany.edu/title-ix/index.html.

I have read the statements contained herein and accept the conditions and policies. Further, I certify that all information provided in this application is true/accurate and that any omissions or inaccuracies could result in dismissal from the College.

I understand that it is my responsibility to notify the Admissions Office of any change in the information contained on this application.

I am a legal resident of _____________ _____________ (COUNTY) (STATE) and have resided there for _____________ (YEARS/MONTHS) immediately preceding the first day of classes of the semester applied for at Allegany College of Maryland. Further, my presence during this period was not for the purpose of temporary residence incident to enrollment in an institution of higher education. (Documentation of residency may be requested).

In making this application, I agree to abide by all College rules, policies, and regulations (including student code of conduct), as well as local, state, and federal laws. I understand it is my responsibility to complete any student education/training required by law, regulation, or college policy. I further accept and agree to abide by the policies and regulations of Allegany College of Maryland concerning drug and alcohol abuse and understand that the unlawful use of drugs or alcohol will subject me to penalties contained in those policies and regulations.
