EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The College has established a faculty and staff Employee Assistance Program (EAP) to provide an opportunity for employees to obtain professional assistance when they are experiencing personal problems that may, or have the potential to, adversely affect job performance or overall quality of life. Effective on the date of employment, this benefit is available to employees and some family members at no cost. For additional information, contact the Human Resources Office.