ARTICLE III

Purpose

The Budget Advisory Committee serves the following purposes for the institution:

1. To be actively engaged in the annual development of the budget process.
2. To ensure that resource allocations are appropriately aligned with the ACM Strategic Plan, and other institutional master plans (Education, Technology, Facilities, Fiscal, etc.), and that evidence-based decisions are employed effectively in financial planning, budgeting, and resource allocation.
3. Review budget allocations and make recommendations to senior administration and the President based on a review of the alignment with the ACM Strategic plan and available assessment data.
4. Review any capital improvement plans that have a fiscal impact to the institution and make recommendations to senior administration, the President, and Board of Trustees based on a review of available assessment data.

ARTICLE IV

Procedures, Quorum and Voting

While this committee is advisory in nature, there may be an instance where the committee would choose to present a formal opinion on an issue that arises from the committee's work. In that instance, the committee may vote, and that vote would be carried to the senior administration and the President for consideration when making final budgetary decisions.

1. A quorum will consist of 7 voting members present at the time the voting takes place.
2. Members who are not physically present at the time of the meeting, but who can utilize electronic means (zoom, phone, skype, or other conferencing methods) can vote and are considered in the quorum.
