Subject: 12-17-20 Governor Hogan’s Travel Orders

Date: December 18, 2020

ACM Faculty and Staff,

On Thursday, December 17, 2020, Maryland Governor Larry Hogan issued an emergency order that focused on expanded testing and quarantine requirements for travel. As stated in the order, all Marylanders who travel outside of Maryland or any individuals who do travel to Maryland must either obtain a negative COVID-19 test result or self-quarantine for 10 days. This travel applies to all states, with the exception of Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, and Washington, DC.

The governor’s order and the companion health directives can be found as part of the hyperlink.

Note: This directive does not impact ACM employees who commute to work but impacts other travel. It is important to remember that your travel decisions could impact your ability to return to campus when ACM opens in January.

All ACM employees, regardless of residency, are required to follow this order, which has been put into effect immediately. If you have any questions, please contact your supervisor, your vice-president, or the HR office.

Melinda Duckworth, PHR, SHRM-CP
Director of Human Resources