ACM OFFERS NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION AT BEDFORD CAMPUS

EVERETT, PA (Aug. 1, 2018) – No one enjoys feeling overwhelmed or lost on their first day. To help students begin their college career with confidence, Allegany College of Maryland's Bedford County Campus will host New Student Orientation on Tues., Aug. 14 from 5 to 7 p.m.

New student orientation offers mini-sessions designed to demystify the college experience and introduce students to the college's wide range of services.

Mini-session topics include: student services, financial aid, scholarships, computer services, college survival skills and library services. Particular attention will be paid to introducing students to the many programs within student services, including: career development, crisis counseling, disability services, support systems, the testing lab and tutoring.

The campus, located at 18 North River Lane in Everett, offers more than 45 day and evening courses during the fall semester.

Registration for orientation is not required, and all are welcome to attend. For more information, call 814-652-9528, ext. 6200 or email BCCstudentservices@allegany.edu.
