

ALLEGANY COLLEGE of MARYLAND
ENGAGE YOUR FUTURE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 31, 2019

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Kristin Kehrwald
301-784-5152
kkehrwald@allegany.edu

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF NURSING CLASS OF 1954 VISIT
ALLEGANY COLLEGE OF MARYLAND NURSING STUDENTS

PHOTO CAPTION 1—Four members of the Memorial Hospital School of Nursing Class of 1954 met with first and second-year nursing students at Allegany College of Maryland to share nurse training stories and reflect on changes to modern healthcare. The 1954 class created the Rhoda Barton Memorial Nursing Scholarship at ACM in 2008 to celebrate their classmate and her 44-year career at Memorial Hospital.

-more-

PHOTO CAPTION 2==The Memorial Hospital School of Nursing group attended at the behest of Gale Heavner, the daughter of a beloved classmate, Patricia Murphy Wright. L-R: Pat Pile, Janie Kuhn, Virginia Northcraft and Jean Phillips. Northcraft's nursing school uniforms and memorabilia were on display.

PHOTO CAPTION 3==Flanked by Virginia Northcraft and a mannequin modeling Northcraft's student uniform, Jean Phillips discusses her psychiatric nursing rotation at the Springfield Hospital in Carroll County. After her career in nursing, Phillips opened the Uniform Village, a supplier for ACM's nursing student uniforms.