TENNIS COURTS AT ALLEGANY COLLEGE OF MARYLAND READY FOR COMMUNITY PLAY AND COMPETITION

PHOTO CAPTION== ACM Foundation President Audie Klingler, ACM Foundation Member Peter Halmos, ACM Director of Athletics, Physical Education and Health/Baseball Head Coach Steve Barzarnic, ACM President Cynthia Bambara, County Commissioner Jake Shade, ACM Alumni and County Commissioner Bill Valentine, ACM Alumni and Trustee Jim Pyles, and County Planner/Recycling Coordinator Siera Wigfield cut the ribbon during the dedication of ACM's renovated Tennis Courts Complex on Oct. 5. The courts are open to the public with three courts now lit for evening play. Updates were funded by the State of Maryland's Board of Public Works' Program Open Space funds, ACM Foundation private donor funds, and College funds at the cost of more than $130,000.
