- President Gene Hall welcomed everyone to our annual fall meeting.
- Shirley Dicken, chair of the Scholarship committee, introduced Emily Garland, OTA student and recognized her for receiving the first ACM Retirees scholarship.

Secretary/Treasurer Report:

- Joyce White reported that 54 members joined the association. To date, we have $685 in the scholarship fund and $1,336.84 in dues.

Social Committee (Linda Mellon, chair)

- Linda gave an overview of events of last year. She announced that the next monthly gathering would be lunch in Everett at the Union Hotel and a visit to the Fort Bedford Museum.

Communications Committee (John Moore, chair)

- John is tracking the number of “hits” to the ACMRA website. So far, there have been 167.

Nomination Committee (Paul Haberlein, chair)

- Paul reported that he would be working with Vic Reuschlein and Linda Mellon to identify candidates for election of officers. The membership will vote on this at the spring meeting, which will be held in April or May 2011.

Following the meeting, lunch was served.

Respectfully submitted,

Joyce White
