President Gene Hall opened the meeting by welcoming Dr. Bambara, President of ACM and Mona Clites, the new advisor for ACMRA. He then had the retirees introduce themselves.

Dr. Bambara spoke to the retirees, saying that she is getting to know the staff and others at the college. She informed the retirees that the new Dean of Finance is David DeWitt. The search for Vice-President of Instructional Affairs is still ongoing. Fran Leibfreid is acting as interim until the search is complete. Enrollment at the college is down 5%.

Secretary/Treasurer Report

Joyce White, secretary/treasurer, announced that we now have 50 members. 46 of the 50 members make up a total of 1261 years of service.

At this time we have $1375 in the scholarship fund. Members donated an additional $180 towards the scholarship fund. The dues fund carries a balance of $1977.94.

Scholarship Committee

Gene introduced General Studies Program student, Shari Cabel as the scholarship recipient for 2011-12. Scholarship Committee Chair Shirley Dicken presented Shari with the scholarship.

Social Committee

Linda Mellon announced that the social committee had planned a trip to Berkley Springs on Tuesday, October 11. ACM will provide a van for transportation.

A luncheon is held on the second Tuesday of each month. E-mail is sent to members each month announcing where the luncheon will be held.

Communication Committee

John Moore, chair, is working with Nick Taylor keeping the website updated. We now have a list of Charter members, deceased members and current members.

Other Business

Gene Hall announced that the Spring Meeting would be held in the Gilpin Room at ACM.

After the conclusion of the meeting, the members enjoyed a luncheon prepared by the Culinaire Café.

Sincerely yours,

Joyce White
Secretary/Treasurer
